Day by Day Itinerary

Thurs., Feb. 15 – WAYNE / HONOLULU

Early this morning we depart Wayne by private motor coach for the drive to Omaha's Eppley Airport in preparation for our scheduled airline flights to Honolulu, Hawaii. We'll arrive on the Island of Oahu this afternoon where we'll be greeted by the warm trade winds and a traditional Hawaiian "lei" and "aloha." A short drive then takes us to our downtown hotel where the remainder of the day is at leisure.

Fri., Feb. 16 – HONOLULU (Paradise Cove Luau) (B,L,D)

Called "The Gathering Place", Oahu is alive with activity. The day is free to explore the capital city of Honolulu on our own. Enjoy the day basking in the sun or taking part in any number of water sports on renowned Waikiki Beach and make time for a visit to the Honolulu Zoo and Aquarium.

For the shoppers among us, try the International Market Place for incredible bargains. And don't forget about the evening hours; Honolulu is known for its fine dining along with a wide variety of Polynesian revues, live music and entertainment. Late this afternoon we'll travel to Paradise Cove to celebrate the history and culture of the Hawaiian Islands. With the spectacular Hawaiian sunset as a backdrop, award-winning performers will entertain and amaze us with an unforgettable display of songs and dances of Hawaii and Polynesia.

Sat., Feb. 17 – HONOLULU / CRUISING (B,L,D)

Today we'll relive a "moment in history" when we visit Pearl Harbor's Arizona Memorial to learn of the events that unfolded on December 7, 1941. We'll first stop at the Visitors Center, and then board a navy launch for the journey to the U.S.S. Arizona where we'll disembark for an up close, unforgettable experience. Afterward, we'll travel across the Ford Island Bridge to tour the celebrated USS Missouri Battleship where on September 2, 1945, General MacArthur accepted the Japanese surrender that ended World War II. Following our tour, we'll travel to the Port of Honolulu for embarkation aboard Norwegian Cruise Lines' Pride of America in anticipation of our upcoming Hawaiian Islands cruise.

The next seven days and nights will introduce us to the Freestyle Cruising experience. Start your day with an invigorating walk along the open broad decks of the ship or visit the fitness center. Then indulge yourself in local culture by learning how to Hula, weave a fresh flower lei, or take in a lecture on the nature and folklore of the islands. Afterward, you'll surely want to soak in the Hawaiian sun poolside and end your day by spoiling yourself in the exclusive spa. And don't forget the nightlife, starting with multiple restaurant choices followed by everything imaginable from a quiet evening in the library or movie theater, to late night entertainment in the Broadway-style theater. Do everything or nothing at all, it's up to you!

Sun., Feb. 18 and Mon., Feb. 19 – KAHULUI (B,L,D)

The next two days will be spent on the "Valley Isle" of Maui. Maui was formed by the convergence of two volcanoes at the isthmus known as the Central Valley, and Kahului is the ideal location for touring the island. Enjoy the day at nearby

Wailuku where you can investigate Hawaiiana in the Bailey House Museum or purchase any number of optional shore excursions that can introduce you to beautiful Iao Valley, Haleakala Crater, the old whaling port of Lahaina and Kaanapali Beach. Featured is the "Best of Maui" combining all the highlights of West Maui on a comprehensive excursion visiting Iao Valley, the Maui Tropical Plantation and Maui Ocean Center.

Tues., Feb. 20 – HILO

(B,L,D)

Today we visit Hilo on the "Big Island" of Hawaii. Hilo is a city not so much for tourists as for visitors, as nature itself has checked the city's progress with an average of 278 days of rain a year and two destructive tsunamis. Spend a relaxing afternoon strolling through the waterfront parks or in the downtown district where a number of the brightly colored restored buildings clustered next to the Wailuku River are listed with the National Register of Historic Places. Exploring the "Big Island" on an optional shore excursion is a real adventure; for Hawaii's vast size has produced a wide variety of climates and attractions. All about the island you'll discover traces of an ancient Hawaiian civilization as you go from sandy beaches to lava wastelands, from rocky deserts to sweet mountain meadows, and from peaceful bays to volcanic craters. Featured is a visit to Volcanoes National Park where spectacular volcanoes, craters and steam vents are waiting to be explored.

Wed., Feb. 21 – KONA

(B,L,D)

This morning we arrive in Kona located on the western coast of the "Big Island" of Hawaii. In Kona we'll find the real Polynesian Hawaii and see firsthand that the old culture still thrives. Enjoy a visit to the fishing village of Kailua and the summer palace of Hawaiian royalty, or simply relax with an afternoon aboard one of the glass bottom boats. Of course, there is always shopping nearby or an afternoon of working on your tan at the beach. For the more adventurous, you may prefer an optional shore excursion of deep sea fishing for Blue Marlin; the Kona Coast is famous for it! Featured is a visit to the Pu'u'honua o Honaunau National Historical Park where you can gain an understanding of the Big Island's history through attractions that highlight the life of the early Hawaiians and the influence of Catholic missionaries.

Thurs., Feb. 22 and Fri., Feb. 23 – NAWILIWILI (B,L,D)

This morning we arrive in the port town Nawiliwili on the "Garden Isle" of Kauai. It is no coincidence that the oldest of the major Hawaiian Islands is also the most beautiful. To truly experience the diversity of Kauai, you'll want to purchase an optional shore excursion to Waimea Canyon and gaze down upon the "Grand Canyon of the Pacific" and enjoy a scenic jungle river cruise along the Wailua River to the mystical Fern Grotto. Regardless of what you choose to do, you'll find an endless array of exotic spots to explore. Featured is the "Best of Kauai." On this tour you'll explore two of Kauai's most dramatic natural attractions - the 3,000-foot deep Waimea Canyon and the lush landscapes lining the Wailua River, including the famed Fern Grotto.

Sat., Feb. 24 – HONOLULU / EN ROUTE (B)

This morning we return to Honolulu as our vacation in the Hawaiian Islands winds down. But first, we'll travel inland to visit the Dole Pineapple Plantation. We'll enjoy a two-mile, 20-minute fully narrated train ride through a real-life working plantation to learn about the pineapple, Hawaii's most famous fruit crop, and hear about James Dole, the man who built a world-famous agricultural empire from 60 acres of Wahiawa earth. Afterward, we'll travel through emerald green fields of pineapple and sugar cane waving gently in the breeze before reaching the brilliant blue waters of the of the world-famous North Shore, home to the most celebrated surfing zones in the world, including the spectacular Banzai Pipeline. We'll set aside time for last-minute shopping and lunch on our own in Haleiwa. Then as all good things must come to an end, it's time to sit back, relax and enjoy the scenic drive back to Honolulu International Airport in preparation for our return journey home.

Sun., Feb. 25 – EN ROUTE / WAYNE

Early this morning we arrive in our gateway city and change planes for the final leg of our journey home, no better time to reflect on memories of our Honolulu & Hawaiian Islands Cruise Vacation that will last a lifetime and new friendships made along the way!
